If the Convention proposes some practical measure for the mitigation of the evils of Chinese immigration, it will accom-plish far more toward solving the problem than by occupying its time with speeches filled with denunciation and demagogism. The country is ready to listen to the griev-ances of the Pacific States and to consider what plans they have to offer for relieving them. It will not indorse any disposition to continue the methods which have been employed in some instances to get rid obnoxious residents. Mr. Mendell, living thirteen miles northwest of town, was awakened about 3 o'clock this mornwas awarened about 3 o clock this morning by a scream. He went to the door, and was met by Willie Sells, the son of a neighbor, J. W. Sells. The boy cried out: "Mr. Mendell, a man is at our house with a hatchet, and has hurt father and mother; I don't know how badly." Mr. Mendell went with the boy, arousing J. J. Rice, another neighbor, on the way. Upon reaching Sells' house a most horrible sight met their eyes. In a bed in the north room lay Walter, Willie's brother and bedfellow, aged 19, his throat cut and the entire top of his head chopped off, exposing the brain, and his left eye was hanging upon his cheek. Passing into the south nd main room, where a light was burning, they stumbled over the prostrate form of Mr. Selis, his head crushed and

A Coroner's jury was impaneled, and subsequent investigation brought was put on the stand. He swore that he bad not washed his hands since the murder, but inspection showed that while his hands and wrists were clean, there was a water-mark, above which his forearms were deeply incrusted with blood, which appears to have spurted up his sleeves. Around his fingernails, too, was blood. Upon removing his pants his drawers were

His feet fitted all the bloody foot-marks to be found. The boy stoutly denied being the murderer and aintained a bold front throughout. The conclusion of the inquest was postponed until to morrow. The boy was smuggled into a buggy by Police Judge Camborn and Deputy Sheriff Locke and driven to the jail in Erie for fear of lynching, which appeared imminent. On the way to Erie he said to Mr. Camborn: "Those fellows tried to get me to say I did it, but I thought it would be best not to admit it." There is hardly a doubt that the boy committed the dreadful crime, though no motive is known. Mr. Sells had in his pocket-book $100 in gold and $170 in bills, which were not disturbed, besides three watches. John Hall of Erie has been appointed guardian of the boy. The Turf in New York. BROOKLYN (N. Y.), March 9th .- Th an discussed the new schemes yesterday for making Long Island the liveliest racing point in this country. The latest proposition is to convert the old half-mile trotting park, used last year by the New York and Brooklyn Driving Park, into racecourse. These side associations, with the popular racecourse at Sheepshead Bay for a center, will make Long Island a more bristling arena for race horses than it ever was for trotters. A dozen fresh buyers of race horses this winter have announced their intention of trains their intentions. their intention of trying their fortunes on the turf. These will more than fill the vacancies in the ranks caused by death and late retirements.

COLORED MEN PREPARING TO COME WEST. New York, March 8th.—The low rate of the Sunset Route to San Francisco has had one unexpected result. The boycotters are taking two or three stores at a time, and their intention is to wage war upon all proprietors who refuse to remove from their counters such goods as are objectionable to the Knights of Labor. Previous to that time I had been subject to attacks of severe pain in my left side. Hot cloths and liniments afforded temporary relief, but after awhile the pain always returned. In the fall of 1880, after a very severe attack, I was advised by a friend to try an Allcock's Porous Plaster on my side, which greatly benefited me. After that I tried several kinds of plasters to see which was best, and finally decided that Alleock's suited my case the best. E. Sighton's Letter to the San Francisco Supervisors. Henry E. Highton has sent to the Board of Supervisors a communication, in which he declines, for business reasons of an imperious character, to accept the appointment as delegate to the Anti-Chinese Convention, to be held at Sacramento to-morrow. Mr. Highton says in his letter: I regret to say that the enforced trials of regret to say that the enforces trials of cases which I could not foresee, and cannot prevent, render it impossible for me to attend the Convention to be held in Sacramento on Wednesday next; and therefore I am reluctantly compelled to resign the position of delegate, assigned to me by the Board of Supervisors of this city and

Board of Supervisors of this city and I was anxious to attend that convention. because I hoped to be able there to co-operate with intelligent, determined and law-abiding representatives of the people in a practical effort, on the one hand, to secure the eradication of the Mongolian element from out midst, and, on the other hand, to arrest the tendencies toward anarchy which are endangering the prosperity and the good name of the State. I hope it is not improper for me to say in this form that the problem of removing at least 140,-000 Chinamen from this State by methods at once legal and honorable, without inflicting serious injury upon existing indus-trial interests, demands the exercise of a high order of intelligence and of cool and deliberate judgment. It is to be expected that the further influx of Mongolians will now be finally checked. But the withdrawal of those already here, in my opinion, can-not be accomplished by brute force, even if the employment of such means would not be disgraceful to an American community, and will require the combined action of the people themselves and of the municipal State and Federal authorities.

It is quite certain that, in the United States, which has been and is an asylum for the oppressed of all nations, and where every white man and every black man possesses or can obtain the right of suffrage, there can be no excuse or even palliation for lawlessness, and we should repudiate alike our political institutions, our civiliza-tion and our humanity if we denied to Court, involving several million dollars, in behalf of the State. The opposing counsel were Senators Evarts and Edmunds, and I neard the latter praise Delmas' argument that we demand for ourselves. He is here quite as much through our fault as through his own, and we must get rid of him preceebles. through his own, and we must get hu of him peaceably and lawfully, and not by confiscating his property if he has any, or by taking his life. Any other course would defeat its own purpose, and would not only be unjust to ourselves, but would concentrate upon us the condemnation of our I was among the first to oppose Mongolian immigration, the introduction of a non-assimilating element, of a race virtually enslaved, and at once alien, debased and competitive, into our population, and I re-main now where I was nearly thirty years the further inroads of that race are likely to be summarily checked. But I am firmly onvinced, that as to the resident Chinese with whom we are now called upon to deal while it may have its local and temporary uses, will turn out, in a broad sense, to be an ineffectual remedy, and may, indeed, ultimately "return to plague the invent-ors." If carried to its remotest consequences it might concentrate the Chinese in San Francisco. But what then? They procedure would be violence, which no good citizen desires, which would, most likely, be promptly suppressed, and the existence of which would be almost detructive to the State. I am in favor of a strong appeal to Con-gress and to the Executive head of the Government for the united action we now so imperatively need, and of the adoption of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which shall prohibit the Mongolians from entering the United States, except for necessary commercial and diplomatic purposes, and which shall prevent all Mongolans, and, I beg to add, all paupers and all persons belonging to the criminal classes, from acquiring a resi-dence in the United States, and which shall furthermore compel the legislation necessary to carry out these objects fully and effectually. I am. my dear sir, with great respect, faithfully yours, HENRY E. HIGHTON.

INSANITY AND DRINK .- Statistics show that one-quarter of all the insanity in the world, and in Paris one-half, is caused by drink. In the Department of the Seine, in France, there are six times as many luna-tics as there were in 1801, while the population is only three times as great. The chief of the "physical" causes preducing mental isease is excessive drinking, which is reponsible for 562 cases out of the 1.967 admitted in the year. Of the "moral" causes domestic trouble" stands first, with 59 cases, and after it in order come money losses, alarm, surprise, domestic affliction and religious mania, which last appears to be comparatively rare in Paris. That is it everywhere; drink leads as a cause of disease and crime. The drink curse is more and pestilence combined.

In advance this convention has been assailed, and without a shadow of reason. We have been told through the press that it was called by unrepresentative and unauthorized people; that it is to be a mere instrument in the hands of political demagogues, and the means to the selfish ends of those with axes to grind; that it is at heart pro-Chinese, and that its originators are insincere and really desirous of throttling the whole anti-Chinese movement. As to what it intends, let its acts speak for it. Like all other human endeavors it must be judged by its results. As to its genesis, we know the charges made to be For this forbearance to break down one of false in every particular, and to be the vaporings of jealousy and swollen conceit on the one hand, and on the other the cunning and viciousness of Socialists, embittered Radicals and a clique of destructionists, a few of whom have managed to crawl into labor organizations, and whose advice, if followed, will work the undoing of the trades associations.

We know the men who composed and officered the mass meetings that set in motion the call for the convention. They represent broadly and perfectly labor in all forms, trade and commerce, agriculture and intelligence. They come from the farm, school-room, work-bench, street, shop, gravel pit, the market, the professions, the trades and all leading vocations among wage-winners, workers and employers; manufactures and skilled workmen; orchardists and farmers, and the men whom they employ. In fact, a more thoroughly representative body it would be difficult to summon. We know these men to be sincere, and we shall be woefully disappointed if the convention they have erected does not prove by its breadth of view, its calm, its conservatiism, its firmness and loyalty to principle, law and the interests of white labor, that it is both representative and

A LAW-ABIDING PEOPLE.

(Approved March 7, 1874.) [Section 62, Title IV., Part I., Penal Code.]

A few nights ago a meeting of citizen engaged in the legalized business pursuit of licensed liquor-selling was held in this city. The Chairman at that meeting protested that this is a "law-abiding people," that the men assembled were not lawless but law-obeying; that this is a model city for order and the enforcement and ob servance of the law. Then and there the meeting of law-abiding citizens resolved, graciously, that they would not on the 9th instant violate the law, but would close their places of entertainment on that day the wisest safeguards of our election system, the delegates to the meeting were en titled to the thanks of citizens who do not meet and resolve not to disobey the law made by the sovereign people.

Now, to prove their good faith, to fortify the enthusiastic protestations of the Chairman, to set before the world unmistakably that Sacramento is a law-abiding city, and especially solicitous to obey the law, these gentlemen proceeded yesterday to oper their doors, and all day long drive a thrifty business under the noses of the police and in defiance of the statute. The seventeenth annual ball of the Sacranento Turn Verein took place at the old Pavilion last evening. The hall was tastefully and elaborately decorated for the occasion. The floor was canvased and a row of terraced seats erected on all sides. The attendance was quite large, the seating capacity being well taxed, while the number of maskers was much larger than at any masquerade of the season, and largely in excess of what was anticipated. The Hussar band furnished the music for the occasion. The programme, which was most excellently rendered, was as follows: March, The Storming of Sedan" (Pettie), orchestra; grand sparring match, John L. Sullivan and Paddy Ryan; overture. "Nabucodonosor" (Verdi), orchestra: mounted sword contest, by Rossd Uncun and Sir Gun Twalsh; baritone solo, "Original Aire Varie" (Dognelies) performed by E. A. Platt; the celebrated Cragg Family, by the eleven dudes of the Turn Verein; descripive fantasia, "Germans Before Paris" (D. W. Reeves), orchestra; club swinging, by ten young misses; duet for cornet and trombone, "The Larboard Watch" (Prendiville), performed by Coates and Wright; vaulting and leaping on the high horse, by twelve renowned artists of different nationlities : "Chinese War March" (Michaelis),

At 10:15 the grand march commenced and was led by the mounted police, Ball Committee, Prince and Princess Carnival, with their attendants, Turnfather Jahn and his disciples, Columbia and Germania, with guard of honor; clowns, pirots, harleuins and maskers.

The line reached around the hall more han twice and was a bewildering and beautiful sight. Owing to the crowded condition of the reception-room only a small number of the maskers' names could be obtained. Among those noted as being Miss Laura Krebs, pink, silk-trimmed,

Among the names mentioned are that of Kilgore & Tracy, in the following language: Kilgore & Tracy, grocers, who have made so nuch by the Chinese trade, cannot afford to of-lend that race by signing the anti-Chinese pledge, to accommodate white people whose patronage is not desired. We, therefore, request the "white trash" to boyco t Kilgore & Tracy We have no Chinese trade, and therefore the assertion that we have made so much money by it that we cannot afford to offend them is a falseood. We neither employ Chinese about our store nor our homes, and never have. We are opposed to them first, last and all the time, and always have been. This is why we are boycotted! Respectfully yours, KILGORE & TRACY.

Many persons in Pittston are using aly's Cream Balm, a Catarrh remedy, with most attisfactory results. A lady is recovering the ense of of smell which she had not enjoyed for action of smell which she had not enjoyed to diffeen years. She had given up her case as incurable. Mr. Barber has used it in his family and recommends it very highly. A Tunkhannock lawyer, known to many of our readers, testifies that he was cured of partial deafness.—

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. A DAY LONGER.

The success of the Millinery Opening warrants its continuance to-day.

This event is the culmination of weeks of thought, study and effort in getting together desirable styles and novelties for the Spring and Summer season.

We therefore have no hesitancy in asking visitors to judge our collection critically; to judge of the vigilance of our buyers; to judge of the taste and skill of our millinery force; to judge what the prestige of a large establishment gains for us in prices; and to judge as a whole of our resources and facilities for supplying Millinery of all kinds, from plain to costly, upon the most advantageous terms.

You may not be a patron of this department; you may have no thought of buying-still we think you'll find a visit to the opening of interest, if for no other reason than to find out just what is to be worn this season. The liberty of thus coming to look without buying, is yours. Our welcome will be none the less cordial.

New Spring Wraps and Jackets are displayed in the Cloak-room adjoining. Don't overlook them.

Much interest is felt here in the subject of Senator Miller's successor, and there is quite a general feeling that a southern California man should be appointed.

The Express this evening published interviews with a number of leading citizens on the subject, a majority of whom hoped Stephen M. White would be appointed.

The Associated Press representative interviewed Mr. White this afternoon, and asked whom he thought the Governor would appoint. He said he had not seen Governor Stoneman since the death of Sendral Manager at the Grand Republic mine, near Nocasari, by Apaches—part of two Americans at the Grand Republic mine, near Nocasari, by Apaches—part of Geronimo's band. SAN FRANCISCO MARKET.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9th.

WHEAT—The market is not quick of motion Prices, however, are steady in tone, and if then were any positive demand on export account, is not unlikely that values would show more oless upward tendency. At the moment it doe not look as if shipping business would be as getteral during the present month as it was in February. Holders of grain are watching foreign centers with more than usual interest, as local quotations are almost entirely governed by the situation at distant distributing points. Opportune rains have given promise of a good yield for the coming harvest, causing holders to be less disposed to carry over any stock of magnitude. Ordinary No. 1 qualities can be sold at a range of $1.28½@1.30 \(\frac{1}{2}\) cil, with $1.31½@1.32½ for the better grades. Mil.ing lots can be placed to yet greater advantage.

Call Board sales at the morning session of the San Francisco Produce Exchange were as follows:

Buyer season—1.100 tons. $1.29, 100, 51.67.

Buyer 1886—200 tons, $1 35. Seller 1886—100 tons, $1 2334; 200, $2 2314; 400, 1 23% & ctl.

Afternoon sales were:
Buyer season—100 tons, $1 33; 700, $1 32%.
Buyer 1886—100 tons, $1 34%; 200, $1 35.
Seller 1886—400 tons, $1 23% & ctl.
BARLEY—Trade in feed descriptions is notably dull. Fortunately there is no large array of offering, and holders are not forcing business.
For the better class of stock $1 25 & ctl is an extreme rate, and is said to be seldom realized 1 231/4 7 ctl.

For the better class of stock $1.25 % cit is an ex-reme rate, and is said to be seldom realized. Pretty fair quality is offered at $1.22%, and con-cessions to secure immediate transfer are no improbable. Brewing maintains its position very well, considering the depressed feeling in the feed article. Custom for Brewing seems to be continuous, and dealers are gradually work-ing off all stock of this particular description Prices still show the usual wide margin, say. Si 40@1 50 pctl.

OATS—There is no activity to the market. Stocks are fairly liberal, and arrivals still come forward from Oregon and other points. Prices do not exhibit strength. Surprise and milling, $1 350 1 40; No. 1, $1 22% 125; common grades, $1 17% 120 $ ctl.

CORN—The situation is not encouraging for sellers. Sales of choice White are reported at $1 15 b ctl, and transfers have also been made at $1 10, though not of the best quality. In Yellow the range in values is somewhat wide, say, $1 20@1 27% $ ctl., owing to the difference in the quality of offering. Spot lots of Nebraska can be bought at 95c $ ctl.

VEGETABLES—Asparagus was in heavy supply this morning, and there was a marked decline in prices. String Beans bring good figures, as the receipts are almost nominal at present. Green Peas are abundant, and prices favor buyers. Egg Plant is again making its appearance. We quote: Asparagus, $68c $ b: Green Peas, 3@4c $ b: sweet do, 6@7c $ b; String Beans, 20@25c $ b; Rhubarb, 10@12 $ b: Cucumbers, 50c@51 75 $ dozen; Los Angeles Green Peppers, $0c@51 75 $ dozen; Casbage, 75c $ ctl; Garlic, 14c $ b: String Beans, 20 $ ctl. BUTTER—The situation continues favorable for consumers. Low freight rates have furnished opportunity for making experimental shipments to Eastern points, and though the occasion was availed of to a moderate extent, still the exports by this avenue were not large enough to cause any improvement in local values, as there was no decrease in the volume of arrivals. Some little packing has occurred during the week, and but for this circumstance the market would probably have become yet more unwieldy and forced values to even lower levels. Fancy, 18c; choice, 16@17½c; goo1, 15c; fair, 14c; mixed lots, 10@12½c; B b; Eastern, 8@11c

CHEESE-Although the receipts are not much CHEESE—Although the receipts are not much in excess of market requirements, there is no firm tone to the situation. Buyers are slow of movement and take but enough stock to meet present wants. We quote: California, 10@11c; choice old, 8@9c; fair to good, 5@7c $ b; New York Creamery, 14½@15c $ b.
